

New Mexico Fire Chiefs Association Constitution and By-Laws

ARTICLE I. NAME

This Association shall be known as the New Mexico Fire Chiefs Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

Section 1. To cooperate with other organizations to promote programs that further the goals and objectives of the Fire Services and emergency services within the State of New Mexico.

Section 2. To encourage and develop public education in fire prevention and fire safety for the preservation of life and property from destruction by fire within the State of New Mexico.

Section 3. To develop an active training program dedicated to the continual well being and future development of the Fire Service and Emergency Medical Services within the State of New Mexico.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility

- a. Entity Membership: Each municipality or county or the State of New Mexico or tribal government which owns or operates a fire department is eligible for representation by the Association.
- b. Individual Membership: Any municipal, county, tribal, volunteer or contract employee, whose duties include the responsibility of management of a career, volunteer, or combination fire department, shall be eligible for individual membership in this Association (Fire Chief, Fire Marshal, and other Chief Officers with 2 to 5 Crossed Trumpets). Only one member in good standing from each entity shall have the right to vote on issues brought before the Association, hold office, or serve on the Board of Directors.
- c. Associate Membership: Any current or former municipal, county, tribal, volunteer or contract employee, or interested individual who has business or professional interests in fire and emergency services shall be eligible for associate or associate business membership in this association.
- d. Honorary Membership: The Board of Directors shall have the authority to bestow an Honorary Membership upon any group or individual who has demonstrated a high level of support or contribution to the Association or the New Mexico fire service. There are no dues associated with an Honorary Membership and the holder is not entitled to any voting rights, privileges or the ability to hold office.

Section 2. Voting Membership

- a. Municipal Entities: Municipal fire departments in good standing and in attendance at a meeting shall be entitled to cast a single vote in the name of the municipality.

New Mexico Fire Chiefs Association Constitution and By-Laws

- b. Non-municipal Entities: County or tribal governments in good standing in attendance at a meeting shall be entitled to cast a single vote. The county or tribal government must designate a Fire Chief, Fire Marshal or other Chief Officer (with 2 to 5 crossed trumpets) and submit that name to the New Mexico Municipal League liaison as its designated "voting representative" prior to the meeting.
