

BIO

Mark L. Allen

Mark received a Bachelor of Science in political science from Utah State University and his Juris Doctor from the University of Utah College of Law. Mark began his legal career at the Rodey Law firm in Albuquerque practicing primarily in the areas of workers' compensation defense and general insurance defense. In 1994 Mark joined the City Attorney's Office for the City of Santa Fe and worked until his retirement in 2019. Mark served as the City's employment and labor lawyer and as legal counsel to the City's Risk Management Division, the City's Claims Committee and the Police and Fire Departments. Mark joined New Mexico Counties in 2019 as the Loss Prevention Attorney.