Under New Mexico state law, mileage benefits are paid as follows:

A. Employer shall pay worker's mileage, transportation, meal and commercial lodging expenses for travel to health care providers (HCPs) pursuant to this rule. Payment shall be made only to the injured worker and within thirty (30) days of the employer's receipt of an original itemized receipt that complies with the requirements of this rule:

- (1) forty-four cents (.46) per mile for travel to HCPs for fifteen (15) miles or more, one (1) WAY, from the worker's residence or place of employment, depending upon the point of origin of travel;
- (2) actual reimbursement for the cost of a ticket on a common carrier, if applicable;
- (3) actual reimbursement up to fifteen dollars ($15.00) for any one meal wherein reimbursement is allowed for an initial one hundred and fifty (150) miles of travel with three (3) meals total and thirty dollars ($30.00) total reimbursed for a twenty-four (24) hour period; and,
- (4) actual reimbursement up to eighty-five dollars ($85.00) for the cost of overnight commercial lodging in the event of required travel of at least one hundred and fifty (150) miles one (1) way from worker's residence or place of employment, depending upon the point of origin of travel.

Under New Mexico Law, any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to civil fines and criminal penalties.
