

Instructions for Adoption and use of the NM Municipal Records Retention Schedule

NOTE: You must adopt the schedule by resolution to give it legal authority.

This schedule has been developed to provide a uniform retention schedule across all municipalities. It will also allow some customization by individual municipalities

The workbook is composed of the following worksheets:

Instructions - this page

Retention Schedule - the NM Municipal Records Retention Schedule

List w retention - A listing of all the record series by department, along with the retention period

Listing only - A listing of all the records series by department

Protected Fields:

The following fields are protected and cannot be changed or modified by an individual municipality

Record Series Number

Records Series Name

Old No. - This is the old retention schedule number for the record series

Customizable Fields:

The following fields may be modified by a municipality:

LO (Local Option) - Place an asterisk * in this field if a change is made to any field in a record series

Descriptions / Examples - Add additional information to reflect details about this record series as it pertains to the individual municipality.

Retention Period - Any retention period may be increased (lengthened), but cannot be LESS than the original retention period

Department - The name of the department may be changed to match that of the individual municipality. The entire department rows may be hidden if a municipality does not have that function

Notes - Any comments or notations regarding the records series that is relevant to the individual municipality

At this time, individual record series may not be moved to different departments to reflect the organization of the individual municipality.

The current version of the retention schedule (10-18-18) also has hidden columns and rows as follows:

Hidden rows - At the end of the schedule are the record series that have been combined and/or removed from the old schedules.

Hidden columns:

New State number - the record series number that replaces the old retention schedule series number

Sort order - this allows the schedule to be sorted in the default arrangement

Last update - the date the record series was last updated

Submit any questions or suggestions for change to the NMMCFOA Records Committee
