

Ronak Patel is a Deputy county Counsel with the County of Riverside in California. Mr. Patel began his litigation career at a large international practice in Los Angeles and has been defending public agencies in federal and state court for over a decade. Currently, Mr. Patel represents the County of Riverside in various federal and state actions involving tax, water, elections, and bankruptcy cases. Mr. Patel also provides general advice and counsel to the County's Treasurer-Tax Collector and Registrar of Voters. Mr. Patel also volunteers as counsel for a non-profit organization and has advised on charitable activities in Asia, Africa, Australia and the United States.