NEW AND FUTURE POLICE CHIEF TRAINING

Presented by
The New Mexico Association of Chiefs of Police
March 23rd through the 27th
Hosted by the Rio Rancho Police Department

This course will be instructed by law enforcement leaders, managers, and experts from throughout the state of New Mexico. The goal of this course is to develop future police chiefs and prepare them for the role of executive leadership.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
- Leadership in Law Enforcement
- The First 90 Days
- Budgeting
- Leading Organizational Change
- Ethics
- The City Manager
- Working With Elected Officials
- Policy Development
- Liability Issues
- Recruiting and Hiring
- IA and the Disciplinary Process
- Leading Civilians
- The Police Chief Hiring Process
- Mitigating Risk
- Accreditation
- Use of Technology
- Police, PIO & Social Media

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, Deputy Chiefs, Undersheriffs, and other law enforcement command staff as part of their career development.

LOCATION
Rio Rancho Police Department
Training Room No. 1
500 Quantum Road
Rio Rancho NM, 87124

LODGING
Hilton Garden Inn
1771 Rio Rancho Blvd.
Rio Rancho, NM 87124
(505) 896-1111
Room Rate: $96.00 + tax
Ask for NMML Police Chiefs Training Room Block
Cut Off Date: Friday, March 9th

REGISTRATION FEES
Early Rate: $150.00 prior to March 16th
Late/On-Site Rate: $175.00 after March 16th

REGISTRATION
On-line registration is highly recommended if you plan to pay with credit card. You must have login credentials for on-line registration. Contact NMML Support Services Staff for Username & Password (800) 432-2036. You can also email or fax your form.