

NEW AND FUTURE POLICE CHIEF TRAINING

Presented by

The New Mexico Association of Chiefs of Police

June 7th through the 10th

Hosted by the Rio Rancho Police Department

This course will be instructed by law enforcement leaders, managers, and experts from throughout the state of New Mexico. The goal of this course is to develop future police chiefs and prepare them for the role of executive leadership.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Leadership in Law Enforcement
- Budgeting
- Ethics For the Future Chief
- IA and the Disciplinary Process
- Police, PIO & Social Media
- Liability as a Police Chief
- The Police Chief Hiring Process
- Use of Technology
- The First 90 Days
- Leading Organizational Change
- Recruiting and Hiring
- Policy Development
- The Police Chief Lobbyist
- Leading Civilians
- Mitigating Risk and Lawsuits

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, Deputy Chiefs, Undersheriffs, and other law enforcement command staff as part of their career development.

LOCATION

Rio Rancho Police Department
Training Room No. 1
500 Quantum Road
Rio Rancho NM, 87124

LODGING

Hilton Garden Inn
1771 Rio Rancho Blvd.
Rio Rancho, NM 87124
505-896-1111 or 800-445-8667
Room Rate: $96.00 + tax
Ask for NMML New & Future Chiefs
Training Room Block
Cut Off Date: May 31st

REGISTRATION FEE

$150.00 per person

REGISTRATION

You must register on-line for this training. If you do not have your login credentials, contact Anita Tafoya at atafoya@nmml.org or 505-929-1732.